

Funding

The Ximera Project is funded 2024-2026 (with no other external funding) by a 2,125,000 Open Textbooks Pilot Program grant. In the past, the Ximera Project has also received support from NSF Grant DUE-1245433, the Shuttleworth Foundation, the Ohio State University Department of Mathematics, and the Affordable Learning Exchange at OSU.

Also KU Leuven and University of Florida contributed to the technical development of Ximera.
